We are grateful for their spiritual leadership and their limitless support and dedication to our school community. Watch out, he’s coming to a court near you.

Pauline Workshop – Letter to Philemon

Date: Sunday November 10
Time: 10:00 – 11:30 am
Place: North Meeting Room
Copies of Letter will be supplied for your notes.

Philemon is a one-page letter that Paul wrote from prison. He wrote the letter on behalf of a recent convert whose name was Onesimus. What is exceptional about this letter is that Onesimus is a runaway slave whose master, Philemon, was the leader of a Christian community.

This creates a highly sensitive issue as Roman Law is clear about the rights of masters to punish runaway slaves and stands at odds with Paul’s request that Philemon receive Onesimus as a brother.

We will explore Paul’s persuasive arguments and the effect of his counter cultural message to 1st century Christians and beyond.

Please sign up with Pat Wisialowski, patwisialowski@stjohncathedral.org – 414/276-9814, ext. 302.

Peace of Mind
Saturday, November 16 after the 5:15 pm Mass,
Light Dinner at 6:15, Program at 7:00 in the Atrium
Presenter: Carolyn Sweers
Carolyn Sweers is a Cathedral parishioner, a contemplative free-lance philosopher, author and teacher.

Jesus said to not be anxious; to not worry about our lives. But how can we not worry when there is so much that is uncertain, and even threatening? Stoic philosophers provide practical advice in two important areas: 1) how to diminish worry by retraining our minds in order to make distinctions about what is up to us and what is not, 2) how to discover character building possibilities in experiences that may seem negative.

What are the advantages of a peaceful mind for Christians (and others)? There are several: it feels good, it facilitates an ability to see situations clearly, it makes us more present to the moment in which we live and it can open our hearts to others in need.

Carolyn’s presentation is based on a little book she wrote and self-published: Peace of Mind: Stoic Insights. Copies will be available. People who want to take one home are asked to make a donation to our sister parish, La Sagrada Familia.

Please RSVP to PatWisialowski@stjohncathedral.org, or 414/276-9814, ext. 302 by Tuesday, November 12, 2019. Thank you.

“Women Who Still Teach Us”
Hildegard of Bingen of Germany
Presenter Sr. Karlyn Cauley
Sunday, November 3, 10:00 am to 11:00 am in the Center meeting room

This Saint lived the earliest form of religious life available in the tenth century: Beguine, anchorite and early Benedictine life. These were enhanced forms of lay life available to women. As a Benedictine nun, she developed liturgical seasonal music of great depth for her Sisters, designed a chapel with visionary art work and offered obstetrics and herbal medicine for women. She wrote her autobiography known as “illuminations” credited to Hildegard.

Folks at the first Thanksgiving were celebrating an abundant harvest. Little did they know that they were helping form a country that would offer its citizens incredible freedoms. Let’s talk about those freedoms – the ones we’re most grateful for, and how we’re called to faithful citizenship!

Join Donna Pinsoneault and Pat Wisialowski as we reflect and give thanks on all we are blessed to enjoy!

Please join us and invite your friends. Please RSVP by 12:00 Noon, Wednesday, October 30, 2019 to Jim at JimTrzebiatowski@stjohncathedral.org or 414/276-9814 ext. 308. Pastoral Care

Are any among you sick?

-James 5:14

The Pastoral Care Phone Extension (414/276-9814, ext. 603) is a special line dedicated exclusively to receiving requests for ministry and service to those who are sick, hospitalized, home-bound, residents of nursing homes or health care facilities or in need of the Sacraments and prayer.

The Prayer Link (ext. 604 or prayerlink@stjohncathedral.org) is a line/email address dedicated to receiving requests for prayer by other parishioners and friends of the Cathedral.

If you would like to be part of the Prayer Link and pray for parishioners please contact Pat Wisialowski, Pastoral Associate.

To arrange for a priest, deacon or lay minister to visit a loved one who is sick, homebound, or hospitalized, please contact the parish office. Because of HIPAA policies, a hospital cannot notify the Cathedral of an admittance, so a family member must take the initiative. Anointing is also offered the second Saturday of the month at the 5:15 pm Mass.
