Day of the Dead

During the month of November, the Church invites us to remember in prayer all those loved ones who have passed through death to eternal life. We at the Cathedral of St John the Evangelist will be remembering all our loved ones who have died the past year by erecting an altar of the dead to remember and celebrate their lives. If you have a loved one you would like included, please bring a photo to the Cathedral next weekend. We will be collecting photos in the front entrance of the Cathedral after the Masses. Photos can also be dropped off or sent to the Parish Office until October 30. Jpeg images can be sent to johnascher@stjohncathedral.org. All photos will be returned to their owners.

Dia De Los Muertos

El mes de Noviembre la Iglesia nos invita a recordar en nuestra oración a nuestros fieles difuntos. En nuestra Iglesia Catedral recordaremos a quienes Dios ha llamado a la vida eterna. Tendremos un altar para recodar y celebrar a nuestros fieles difuntos. Si quieres recordar a algunos de tus fieles difuntos, te invitamos a traer sus fotos durante la próxima semana. Puedes dejar sus fotos en la entrada a la Catedral o traerías a nuestra oficina hasta el 30 de Octubre.

Eat, Drink and Be Catholic

Wednesday, October 30 – 7:00 pm
Boswell Book Company
2559 N Downer Ave
Milwaukee, WI 53211

Milwaukee author Jon M. Sweeney will be talking about his new book, St. Francis of Assisi: His Life, Teachings, and Practice (foreword by Fr. Richard Rohr, OFM), and why St. Francis is the world’s most popular saint, not only for Catholics, but for Muslims, Buddhists, agnostics, spiritual independents, and people of native spiritual paths.

To RSVP or ask questions, contact Chad Griesel at grieselc@archmil.org or 414/271-6180.

“Women Who Still Teach Us”
Hildegard of Bingen of Germany

Presenter Sr. Karlyn Cauley
Sunday, November 3, 10:00 am to 11:00 am in the Center meeting room

This Saint lived the earliest form of religious life available in the tenth century: Beguine, anchorite and early Benedictine life. These were enhanced forms of lay life available to women. As a Benedictine nun, she developed liturgical seasonal music of great depth for her Sisters, designed a chapel with visionary art work and offered obstetrics and herbal medicine for women. She wrote her autobiography and shared “the ear of the Pope” as needed. Sr. Karlyn will share her paintings known as “illuminations” credited to Hildegard.

Giving Opportunity
Thank you for your ongoing generosity to the Open Door Café! Chef Al, our Kitchen Manager, requests donations of mustard, juice boxes and snacks. Please consider donating juice boxes as well as individually wrapped snack packages for our bag lunches. Our hygiene kit program continues to be in great need of full size deodorant, travel size shampoo and full size tubes of toothpaste. Please consider donating new hats, gloves and scarves. Please place your donations in the blue bins in the Atrium or Cathedral Gift Shop on the weekends, or drop them off at the Parish Center reception desk during the week. Thank You!

Stewardship Option
IRA Qualified Charitable Distribution
Cathedral supporters have always been very generous with their stewardship pledges. We are blessed to have such support from our Parishioners and Friends of the Cathedral. Many of us have taken advantage of using our contributions as an itemized tax deduction on our tax return. However, with the new tax law’s higher standard deduction, many of us will find using the standard deduction is our best option, instead of itemizing our deductions (including charitable donations). The effect of this is no separate tax deduction for our charitable contributions.

One part of the tax law you might consider using is making your Cathedral charitable donation directly from your Traditional Individual Retirement Account (IRA). For more information, please visit: www.stjohncathedral.org/documents/Stewardship_Option.pdf.

Women’s Spirituality

The Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist’s Women’s Spirituality Group invites you to please join us on Friday, November 1, 2019 at noon in the Center Meeting Room for our monthly Lunch/Discussion gathering led by Pat Wisialowski, Cathedral Pastoral Associate. Women’s Spirituality is a group of women who meet monthly on the First Friday to enjoy intelligent conversations pertinent to current issues in the contemporary church. Camaraderie, special guests, lively discussions, and even luscious desserts are “perks” making this a most worthwhile way to spend a lunch hour. Come occasionally or come each month!

Just Plain Grateful

Folks at the first Thanksgiving were celebrating an abundant harvest. Little did they know that they were helping form a country that would offer its citizens incredible freedoms. Let’s talk about those freedoms – the ones we’re most grateful for, and how we’re called to faithful citizenship!

Join Donna Pinsoneault and Pat Wisialowski as we reflect and give thanks on all we are blessed to enjoy!

Please join us and invite your friends. Please RSVP by 12:00 Noon, Wednesday, October 30, 2019 to Jim at JimTrzebiatowski@stjohncathedral.org or 414/276-9814 ext. 308. Please include your name with your RSVP. Thank you. If you are interested in ordering a sandwich from Cousins Subs, please call or email for more information (price is $8.00 each).

Peace of Mind
Saturday, November 16 after the 5:15 pm Mass,
Light Dinner at 6:15, Program at 7:00 in the Atrium
Presenter: Carolyn Sweers
Carolyn Sweers is a Cathedral parishioner, a contemplative free-lance philosopher, author and teacher.

Jesus said to not be anxious; to not worry about our lives. But how can we not worry when there is so much that is uncertain, and even threatening? Stoic philosophers provide practical advice in two important areas: 1) how to diminish worry by retraining our minds in order to make distinctions about what is up to us and what is not, 2) how to discover character building possibilities in experiences that may seem negative.

What are the advantages of a peaceful mind for Christians (and others)? There are several: it feels good, it facilitates an ability to see situations clearly, it makes us more present to the moment in which we live and it can open our hearts to others and beyond.

Carolyn’s presentation is based on a little book she wrote and self-published: Peace of Mind: Stoic Insights. Copies will be available. People who want to take one home are asked to make a donation to our sister parish, La Sagrada Familia.

Please RSVP to PatWisialowski@stjohncathedral.org, or 414/276-9814, ext. 302 by Tuesday, November 12, 2019. Thank you.

Drop-In Sunday Morning Scripture Study
Join us on Sunday, November 3 as we look closer at the second reading of the Sunday. We will come to understand it better knowing its date, audience, location and literary composition. We will gather in the North Meeting Room after the 9:00 Mass. The 45 minute session, facilitated by Dennis Callies, will surely benefit your appreciation of the Word of God in our Sunday Liturgy.

If you have any questions about the sessions please contact Pat Wisialowski, patwisialowski@stjohncathedral.org, or by phone 414/276-9814, ext. 302.

Pauline Workshop – Letter to Philemon

Date: Sunday November 10
Time: 10:00 – 11:30 am
Instructor: George Ryan
Place: North Meeting Room
Copies of Letter will be supplied

Philemon is a one-page letter that Paul wrote from prison. He wrote the letter on behalf of a recent convert whose name was Onesimus. What is exceptional about this letter is that Onesimus is a runaway slave whose master, Philemon, was the leader of a Christian community.

This creates a highly sensitive issue as Roman Law is clear about the rights of masters to punish runaway slaves and stands at odds with Paul’s request that Philemon receive Onesimus as a brother.

We will explore Paul’s persuasive arguments and the effect of his counter cultural message to 1st century Christians and beyond. Please sign up with Pat Wisialowski, patwisialowski@stjohncathedral.org – 414/276-9814, ext. 302.

The Pastoral Care Phone Extension (414/276-9814, ext. 603) is a special line dedicated exclusively to receiving requests for ministry and service to those who are sick, hospitalized, home-bound, residents of nursing homes or health care facilities or in need of the Sacraments and prayer.

The Prayer Link (ext. 604 or prayerlink@stjohncathedral.org) is a line/email address dedicated to receiving requests for prayer by other parishioners and friends of the Cathedral.

If you would like to be part of the Prayer Link and pray for parishioners please contact Pat Wisialowski, Pastoral Associate.

To arrange for a priest, deacon or lay minister to visit a loved one who is sick, homebound, or hospitalized, please contact the parish office. Because of HIPAA policies, a hospital cannot notify the Cathedral of an admittance, so a family member must take the initiative. Anointing is also offered the second Saturday of the month at the 5:15 pm Mass.
